

Transport / Delivery Agreement

The Cuddle Lop Cabin Rabbitry

Owner: Robert D. Lettieri

Phone: 516-233-5126

Address: 1033 W. Liberty St, Hubbard, OH 44425

1. Purpose

This agreement outlines the terms for transporting or delivering a rabbit purchased from The Cuddle Lop Cabin Rabbitry. Buyer agrees to all conditions herein.

2. Delivery Options

- Buyer Pickup (No Fee)
- Local Delivery (Fee Applies; must be paid before scheduling)
- Third-Party Transporter (Buyer assumes full responsibility for transporter selection; Seller does not endorse or guarantee any transporter)

3. Food & Travel Cage Option

Food and a travel cage can be provided for an additional $150 if needed.

(Some transporters include a cage rental—Buyer must verify this with the transporter.)

4. Seller Liability During Transport

Once a rabbit leaves the rabbitry—whether with Buyer, Seller (for delivery), or a transporter—the Seller is NOT responsible for stress, illness, overheating, chilling, injury, escape, dehydration, mishandling, delays, or death. Transportation stress is normal and fully the Buyer's responsibility.

5. Buyer Responsibilities

Buyer agrees to select a reputable transporter, ensure safe temperatures (never above 85°F), provide ventilation, allow hay/water during long transport, and receive the rabbit promptly. Failure to pick up from transporter results in forfeiture of the rabbit and deposit.

6. No Refunds / No Chargebacks

All sales are final. No refunds will be issued for transport-related issues. Buyer agrees not to file chargebacks for any reason.

7. Health Guarantee & Transport

The required 72-hour vet exam begins when the rabbit is delivered or picked up. Stress-related symptoms such as soft stool, diarrhea, reduced appetite, overheating, or dehydration are NOT covered. Death during transport voids all guarantees.
